Greenock & Glasgow

Gateway to Scotland

Greenock is the gateway to Scotland, situated on the Firth of the Clyde, it offers one spectacular entrance into the heart of some of the most breathtaking scenery in Britain, showcasing the natural assets of the west coast of Scotland.

Already welcoming over 100 cruise ships per year, Greenock Ocean Terminal is part of the Clydeport hub cluster and is a highly popular port of call. With close proximity to some of Scotland's most popular tourist hotspots, the possibilities for exciting shore excursions are endless.

The terminal has excellent road and rail links to both Glasgow and Edinburgh, connecting towns and the nearby Glasgow Preswick and Glasgow International Airports.

The brand new cruise terminal opening in 2022 boasts a 200 meter floating pontoon, a dedicated cruise visitor centre with an arrivals and departures hall, as well as a museum which pays tribute to the late, world-famous artist, George Wyllie, who worked as a customs officer in Greenock.

Passengers will also have access to a high quality restaurant and roof terrace with panoramic views over the River Clyde.

London Medway

Gateway to the Capital and the Beautiful South

London Medway is the gateway to one of the most exciting Capital cities in the world, it has superb activities in abundance to cater for any visitor, as well as being located at the very heart of Kent, England's garden county. Peppered with magnificent country estates, castles, gardens and museums, this culturally rich area of Britain makes it an easy choice for a UK port of call.

London needs little introduction, England's buzzing capital and one of the most visited cities in the world, it offers activities for any visitor, yet just over an hour away from our Medway port.

The location of our port also opens up endless possibilities for excursions and tours with a broad range of themes. Dame Judy Dench famously said Hever Castle is one of her favourite spots in Britain and this is one of many country houses and historic castles to be found in the stunning county of Kent.

The region also boasts some magnificent natural gardens and inspiring museums such as the Turner Contemporary. Surprising to many, Kent is one the biggest wine producing regions in Britain, many award winning wines are made here and some of these fine vineyards are just a stones throw away from the port of London Medway.

Great Yarmouth

Gateway to Heritage

Great Yarmouth is the gateway to many of England's undiscovered heritage gems. Located on the East Coast of England, a cruise call here offers passengers the opportunity to explore rural royal residences, ancient villages and towns and the beautiful open countryside of Norfolk.

Experience the heritage, attractions and gentle countryside of Norfolk. Our port of Great Yarmouth is ideally located to access and explore some of the hidden destinations in this idyllic part of Britain.

Home to Queen Elizabeth II's Sandringham Estate, the region boasts unspoiled and traditional English villages and towns such as King's Lynn and Denver. Heritage is abundantly on offer here with many castles and country estates as well as the stunning medieval city of Norwich.

The University City of Cambridge, brimming with history, tradition and scholarly charm would make an ideal stop as part of a magical heritage tour.

Peel Ports Group

Working with us

Our cruise ports are a network operated by Peel Ports Group, one of the UK's largest port operators. We safely handle over 70 million tonnes of cargo each year from across the globe. Whether it's finding efficient routes and well-connected services, close to end-destination ports or storage and freight options, we add-value to every step of the process.

Our approach

As a responsible business, with an outstanding track record and approach to safety, we have invested over £1.2 billion across the last decade on sustainable infrastructure and technology. As an employer, we aim to develop the most diverse workforce in the industry and ensure our people have all the necessary training and skills they need to deliver outstanding customer service. We are committed to caring for the environments in which we operate by reducing the impact of our operations. We care about the communities we serve too, by working closely with regional partners.

NET ZERO 2040

Committed to zero emissions by 2040

We are the first major ports group to sign up for ambitious plans towards reducing the environmental impact across all of our operations.

We have unveiled initiatives and investments to help drive a more sustainable agenda and reach the net zero milestone by 2040 across all locations in the UK and Ireland.

By working with us, you can be certain we will add value to your own commitments in improving the environment by reducing carbon emissions.
