No. 20 – 2024

The Swale – Queenborough Harbour Submerged Vessel / Obstruction

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that work to recover a sunken vessel in Queenborough Harbour has been completed, however, the vessel has been towed to a location where it will be broken up and removed. The wreck now lies in the following approximate position which is in shore of and adjacent to Queenborough All Tide Landing

51° 25. 025N – 000° 44. 261 E - Admiralty Chart 2572 Refers

The remnants of the boat are submerged just below the surface at high water but are marked with a number of pellet buoys and surrounded by spill booms which will collect any debris coming from the wreck.

All vessels are requested to keep clear of the obstruction until it has been fully removed.
