Definitions

In these terms and conditions and charging provisions, unless the context otherwise requires:

- (a) “Charges” means Charges, dues, fares, tolls, costs, interest and all other sums of every description due to the Company in respect of Services.
- (b) “Company” means Clydeport Operations Limited, incorporated under the Companies Acts, and having its Registered Office at 16 Robertson Street, Glasgow G2 8DS and including, where the context so admits, its holding, subsidiary and associated companies, and their successors and assignees from time to time.
- (c) “Conservancy Area” means the River Clyde from Albert Bridge, Glasgow to the seaward limits as follows: (a) to the east of the Isle of Arran a line drawn due east and west across the river or Firth of Clyde from the coast of Ayrshire to Corrygills Point on the east coast of the Isle of Arran; and (b) in Kilbrannan Sound, a line drawn due east and west across the river or Firth of Clyde from the north-west coast of the Isle of Arran to the coast of Kintyre, being an extension of a line drawn due east and west from the southernmost point of the island of Little Cumbrae to the northwest coast of the Isle of Arran.
- (d) “Customer” means any party contracting with the Company for the Services, including (a) the owner, agent or master of a Vessel, or such other person as the Company may, from time to time, in writing, accept as being in charge of a Vessel, and (b) the original depositor of Goods or the person to whom such Goods have been transferred, in each case jointly and severally.
- (e) “Deadweight” means the total weight in tonnes of cargo, fuel, fresh water, stores, crew and passengers carried by the Vessel when loaded to a maximum summer load line, sometimes shown as DW or DWT.
- (f) “Director” means a director of the Company.
- (g) “Goods” means any items, substance or property (including grain, fish, livestock and animals of all descriptions) which may be loaded or discharged in the port.

- (h) "Grain" means grain, feeding stuffs and other similar goods.
- (i) "Harbour" means any harbour or berth operated or owned or otherwise under the control of the Company.
- (j) "Harbour Area" means the area around a harbour owned or under the control of the Company.
- (k) "Harbour Master" means the Company's Harbour Master or such other employee of the Company as may from time to time perform the role of Harbourmaster.
- (l) "Pilotage Area" means all areas within the jurisdiction of the Company as defined in the Clyde Port Authority Order 1965 as amended.
- (m) "Port" means the River Clyde between Albert Bridge, Glasgow and a line drawn across the River Clyde from the eastern end of the Castle of Newark on the south bank to the mouth of the Cardross Burn on the north bank, or the Port and Harbours of Greenock and Port Glasgow or Hunterston.
- (n) "Services" means the services of berthing, unberthing, shifting, loading, discharging, transportation, carriage, warehousing, marine services, pilotage and such other Services as may be provided by the Company from time to time.
- (o) "Tonnage" means the Vessel's G.T. ascertained in accordance with Part II of the Merchant Shipping (Tonnage) Regulations 1982 (corresponding to what is known as 1969 Tonnage Regulations). Where the G.T. of the Vessel, ascertained as mentioned above, is not available, dues will be based on an assessment of the G.T. as so ascertained, made by the appropriate officers of the Company. Where in such a case the Vessel's Certificate of Measurement is not immediately available, or does not clearly indicate the amount to be added under this procedure, the Vessels' G.T. shall be deemed to be the Tonnage ascertained from the Tonnage Certificate, increased by up to a maximum of 40%. Retrospective adjustment may be made on the full facts being made available.

The G.T. of unregistered Vessels shall have their chargeable Tonnage assessed by the appropriate officers of the Company.

- (p) "Vessel" means a ship, boat, raft or water craft of any description and includes non- displacement craft, seaplanes and any other thing constructed or adapted for floating on or being submersed in water (whether permanently or temporarily), and a hovercraft and any other amphibious vehicle.
1. Unless the context otherwise requires, words implying the singular include the plural and vice versa and words importing gender shall include any other gender.
 2. Unless otherwise stipulated in any special conditions relating to services and facilities provided by the Company, all vessels may enter or leave the Port or use the Company's equipment or facilities or the service of its employees for or in connection with the loading, discharging or trans-shipping of cargo or in connection with repairing, fitting out, victualing, provisioning or laying-by of the vessel only with the consent of the Company and subject to:
 - a. payment of the relevant dues or other charges;
 - b. such terms and conditions as the Company may impose;
 - c. the lawful directions of the Harbour Master or other appropriate officers of the Company, and
 - d. compliance with the Statutes, Byelaws and regulations of the Company.
 3. The Company notwithstanding any consent given or arrangement made shall be at liberty to vary, postpone or cancel such arrangements for any reason whatsoever without the Company thereby incurring to any person any liability whatsoever for loss, damage, injury, delay or expense.
 4. The Company does not take any charge of or assume any responsibility whatsoever in respect of any vessel navigating or lying in the Port, or entering, leaving, moving, mooring or unmooring in the Port; all craft under such circumstances being at the sole risk of the owner, who alone is responsible for the safety and security of their vessel and moorings and also for any damage done by their vessel or servants to the Port, or to vessels or goods in or upon any part of the Port.
 5. All goods at the Port (whether in transit, laid down or deposited) are at the owner's risk in every respect. The Company has no custody of such goods and shall not be responsible for any loss or damage.
 6. Goods are not in the custody of the Company unless taken possession of by the Company as warehousemen or carriers in accordance with the Company's relevant terms and conditions from time to time in force.
 7. The Company's services shall be undertaken only in accordance with the Company's relevant terms and conditions from time to time in force. The Company requires the appropriate requisition, together with any other necessary documents, to be lodged before any service is begun.

8. When an agent for a vessel ceases to act whilst that vessel is still in the Port and does not accept responsibility for all charges arising, that agent must at once notify the Company so that charges may be correctly debited to the responsible parties.
9. When discharging or loading a vessel, the Company may, on request, furnish to the owner or agent an estimate, to the best of its ability, of the time at which discharging or loading is likely to finish. In giving this estimate, the Company accepts no responsibility for any inaccuracy or for any delay in finishing discharging or loading.
10. The charges and terms herein are subject to alteration at any time.
11. Where the Company has agreed to provide any services in respect of which no charges have been assigned in this schedule, then the charges applicable to those services shall be as determined from time to time by the Company.

General Conditions

Documents to be Furnished by the Customer, Master or Owner

Unless otherwise agreed in advance by the Company, the Customer, master or owner of every vessel discharging or loading cargo must supply to the Company the following documents confirming the quantity of cargo discharged or loaded in the Port and the days upon which discharging or loading took place:

- i) Bills of Lading or Cargo Manifest (indicating the weight of cargo and details of the shippers, consignees and freight payers); and
- ii) Statement of Facts

Where the quantity of cargo discharged does not match that shown on the relevant Bill of Lading, then a certified discrepancy report (including details of supporting surveys etc.) must be provided.

These documents must be supplied by the Customer, master or owner, or the appointed agent, to the Company within two working days of the day upon which the vessel completes discharging or loading as appropriate. The documents must be submitted (as PDF-format attachments) via e-mail to Clydeport.Billing@peelports.com.

Audit

The Company reserve the right, upon the giving of reasonable notice to the Customer, Master, Owner, Vessel Agent, Operator, Cargo Receiver or Cargo Shipper, to require the production of, and to receive, view and / or copy, any relevant document or material within that party's reasonable control that demonstrates and evidences the quantum or movement of any cargo or other throughput that may be received, loaded, discharged, stored or otherwise handled within the Port. Such documentation and materials shall be provided to the Company upon request, without charge and during Company normal working hours.

For the purposes of undertaking periodic audits, the Company also reserve the right to review any recordings, data, reports, measurements produced from equipment under the control of any party and used to load, discharge or store and monitor cargo e.g. including but not limited to CCTV / ANPR etc.

Terms and Conditions

All activities undertaken and Services provided by the Company are in accordance with these terms and conditions and charging provisions, and all applicable Statutes, Byelaws, Directions and Terms & Conditions for trade or the supply of Services, which shall continue to apply except where varied from time to time by the Company.

These terms shall be governed by and construed in accordance with Scottish Law.

Payment

Except where specified herein to the contrary, all charges payable hereunder shall be payable on demand unless otherwise agreed by the Company. The Company may charge interest on any overdue amount in accordance with the Late Payment of Commercial Debts (Interest) Act 1998.

Value Added Tax (or any other tax required to be levied on the Company's charges) shall be payable where applicable at the appropriate rate current from time to time on and in addition to the charges specified or referred to herein. The Company's VAT Registration number is GB 618 6241 39.
