

Mariners are advised that slipway maintenance work is planned at Portavadie Ferry Terminal, Loch Fyne from Monday 29th June for a period of approximately 5 days. This work will be carried out by divers when the ferry is on passage. Flag A will be displayed during diving operations.

Vessels should navigate with additional care when transiting the area adjacent to the Ferry Terminal. A listening watch will be maintained on VHF Ch 12.

