

Mariners are advised that works to repair scour damage to the A78 road at Largs are under way until approximately the end of February 2026. All work will be carried out on the foreshore with no marine craft involved.

Mariners are requested to navigate with additional caution when navigating in this area to minimise the effects of wash.

