

Mariners are advised that sediment sampling work is planned in the River Clyde at Port of Greenock and within Great Harbour from Monday 29th June for a period of approximately 5 days. Sampling will be carried out from Coastbuster II and the vessel will be limited in ability to manoeuvre during operational periods.

Vessels should navigate with additional care when transiting these areas. A listening watch will be maintained on VHF Ch 12.

COASTBUSTER II

