

NOTICE TO MARINERS 2025

Removal of Fire Damaged Turbine at Scroby Sands OWF

RWE Renewables UK Wind Ltd at Scroby Sands would like to inform mariners that essential removal works are planned for Turbine T06 that involves using a jack up vessel to remove damaged turbine components.

This work is due commence from 30th August 2025 within the Scroby Sands OWF Area, depending on weather.

The current outline planning is as follows:

Start Date: Subject to weather 03rd August 2025 (expected end of September 30th)

Safety Zone

The operations will employ a legally enforceable safety zone (500m)

WTG id	Longitude (DDM)	Latitude (DDM)	Water Depth (LATm)
T06	52 37.956n	001 47.102e	+1m

Area of Operations

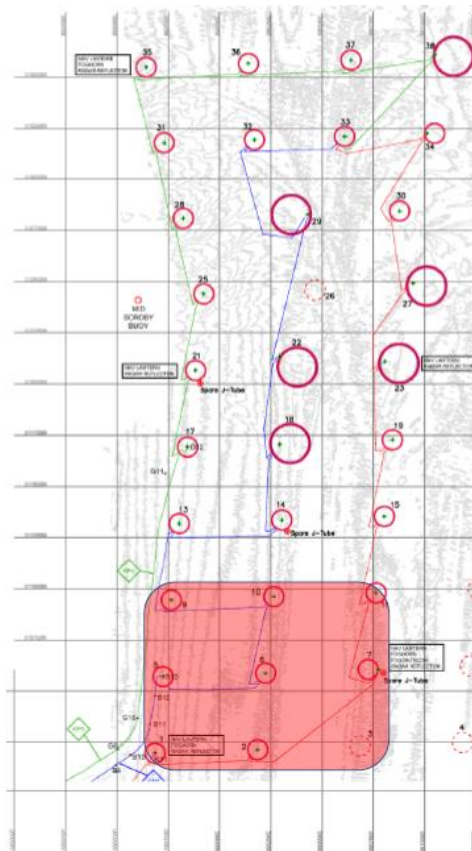

Fig. 1 – Area of works and legally enforceable safety zone legally

Jack up Barge

The WaveWalker 1 will be used as a heavy lift vessel to conduct the works on T06

Call Sign: PBVH
MMSI: 244780105
Contact: VHF Ch16

Support/Guard Vessels

CRC Voyager & CRC Walrus will be situated in and around the windfarm to support the operations and provide guidance to other mariners of the restricted zone.

Name: CRC Voyager
Call Sign: MBZZ7
MMSI: 232011764
Contact: VHF Ch16

Name: CRC Walrus
Call Sign: MMXA2
MMSI: 232045496
Contact: VHF Ch 16

RWE Contact

If you have any marine query regarding this Ntm please contact RWE:
scroby_sands@rwe.com