

PORT MARINE SAFETY CODE (PMSC) POLICY

Peel Ports Group operates as a statutory and competent harbour authority, licensing authority, port operator and a landowner in numerous locations around the UK and Ireland.

The Group Harbour Master, as the senior marine professional, understands the statutory and common law duties which includes an obligation to conserve and facilitate the safe use of our harbours, and has an express duty to take such action as each harbour authority considers necessary for maintenance, operation, improvement or conservancy of harbours.

To that end, the Group Harbour Master is the custodian of the Group Marine Safety Management System, which details how marine operations are to be conducted safely in our ports. Where appropriate, consultations take place with all those who work in and use the harbours to ensure that they are fully involved in the preparation of the Group Marine Safety Management System, marine policies and procedures.

Full and comprehensive risk assessments are undertaken in respect of all activities and facilities within the harbours leading to the development of the Group Marine Safety Management System.

Protection of the environment is recognised by general and specific duties and the Group Marine Safety Management System exercises functions in a manner, which has regard to nature conservation and environmental considerations.

The Port Director of each of the Peel Ports Group statutory authorities are the Duty Holders for the purposes of the Port Marine Safety Code and individually accept responsibility for ensuring that the relevant harbour authority of which they are director, discharges its duties in accordance with the Port Marine Safety Code. They have responsibility and accountability for delivering the respective harbour authority's powers in relation to marine operations and harbour undertakings within their control, through the application of the Group Safety Management System; the Port Directors of the respective ports are responsible for the operational and financial control of each of the harbour authorities.

The Port Directors, as Duty Holders, are committed to undertaking and regulating maritime operations, through the operation of the Group Marine Safety Management System, in a way that safeguards their users, the public, the environment and their harbours.

The Port Directors are advised on all matters related to the relevant Harbour Authority's statutory duties and powers by the Group Harbour Master, the General Counsel and EHS Managers.

The Chief Operating Officer and the Managing Director (Port Services) oversee the implementation of policies and decisions of the Group and together with the Chief Executive have ultimate executive responsibility for the safety of operations and staff.

The Chief Operating Officer, the Managing Director (Port Services) the Group Harbour Master and the Port Directors are committed to the continuous improvement of safety within the Group ports by the constant development of policies, systems and techniques of risk control, governed by an independent, assured audit system.

This policy will be reviewed at annual intervals.
